With Many faces at Central High School,

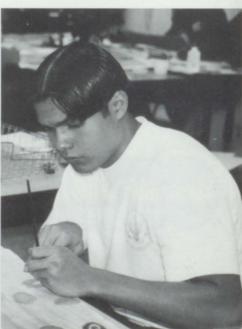

We are rich with diverse cultures and backgrounds.

We are different in Many ways, yet we are ONE!

We are the Chargers

And

We are ALL

Number One!!

One Day

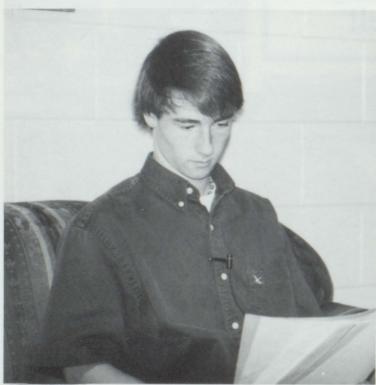

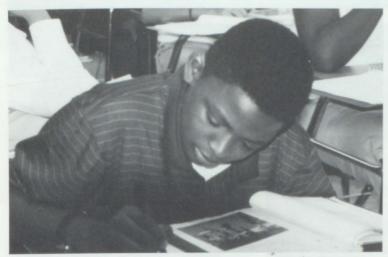

In The Life Of A Charger.

Another Charger touchdown!

Sourgrapes Ed

Hello, Mrs. Eisel

Make a face when you throw the ball and it will go further.

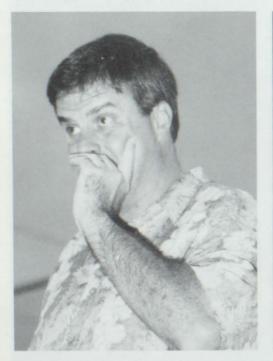

Everybody's doin' it!

 $\mbox{Mr.\ D}$ — deep in thought and playing the football game from the stands.

I'll pretend that I didn't see that. — Mrs. Kelly

Oh my Gosh! What has she done now?

Don't mess with those Chargers!

Hello! Can anyone hear me?

Let me see, am I doing this right?

Looking to the stars for answers

I have got to have my eyes open a little longer.

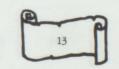

Huff, Puff, Run Stephen Run Huff, Puff

I know I heard a sour note over there.

This thing is a lot heavier than you think.

Central High Mock Trial Team Competes in State Championship

They're not lawyers, but they play them in court.

Nineteen Central High School students competed in Atlanta, Saturday, March 11, for the state mock trial competition. They competed against 12 other schools from around the state. The mock trial competition, sponsored by the State Bar of Georgia, gives high school students the chance to argue fictional cases in real courts of law and in front of legal experts. Each mock trial team in Georgia is given the same "case," and students organize arguments for both sides of the issue. Some students take on the roles of lawyers and some act as witnesses.

In Atlanta, Central's prosecution and defense teams went up against different schools and were evaluated by prominent judges and attorneys. Each team competed twice, and then the field of schools was narrowed to four schools for the following day's competition. In competition, evaluators expect students to know the facts of the case and what specific codes pertain to what points. What really pushes a team over the top is the members' ability to grab and hold the evaluators' attention and deal with the unexpected. Evaluators want to see how students respond to surprise or respond to a mistake.

Cases alternate each year between civil and criminal. Past topics have included hate crimes, fraternity hazing, and child neglect. This year's case involved a fictional school shooting in which the cousin of the shooter is charged with murder and felony murder. The shooter was killed at the scene, but police maintain the shooter's cousin was instrumental in influencing the shooter.

Central's team practiced two evenings a week for two or more hours a night since December. This is the fourth year Central has had a mock trial team, and the second consecutive year they have won the region title. On February 26, Central defeated Tattnall Square Academy and Northeast High School to make it to the regional finals. Central beat First Presbyterian Day School in the regional finals at the Bibb County Courthouse to earn a place at the State competition.

YOUTH LEADERSHIP BIBB COUNTY

Youth Leadership Bibb County will soon be selecting its Class of 2001. Any 10th, 11th, or 12th grade student may apply for this leadership development program that exposes students from all ten public and private schools in Bibb County to important community issues and personal leadership traits. The program is endorsed by the Macon 2000 Partnership and the University of Georgia J. W. Fanning Institute for Leadership.

Founder H. Lee Perdue will once again be leading this organization, with Shaunda Galloway returning as the 2001 Macon Junior League placement. Students are selected based on letters of recommendation and interviews. The program includes a weekend Retreat and eight Saturday sessions from January to May. Topics in the past have included business dress and etiquette, diversity, government, community arts, the press, public housing, and health.

CENTRAL'S ROTC IS #1

formerly Central. Lanier High school, has a tradition of preparing young nen and women to become better American citizens and have a successful future. We instill discipline and leadership traits to help achieve a student's individual goals.

Keeping that in mind, we currently have four omer cadets from Central in the U.S. Military Academy at WestPoint. Cadet Josh Michaels and Cadet Daniel gerryhill are sophomores. Cadet Eric Wilkinson is a unior, and Cadet Mark McCleland is a senior.

The counselors and staff at Central make sure that all students have the opportunity to explore scholarships that are available. The JROTC staff scholarships that are available. exposes the cadets to the scholarships available through the Armed Forces regardless of the branch. We want them to be all they can be!

Special Olympics Unified Hockey Team Travels to Anchorage, Alaska

Students from Central and Southeast High Schools, and Miller Middle School represented Bibb County and Georgia at the Pre-World Winter Games for Special Olympics in Anchorage, Alaska, March 8-12.

Coached by Shynita Patterson, a paraprofessional at Central High School, seven students with disabilities and seven students without disabilities played floor hockey with teams from North America and Canada. The team and chaperones evaluated the facilities that will be used in March 2001 to host the Special Olympics World Winter Games when 2000 athletes from all over the world will gather in Anchorage to compete.

For over 30 years, Special Olympics has provided physical fitness, sports training, and athletic competition for individuals with mental retardation. In the last several years, the Unified Partners Sports have given athletes with disabilities the opportunity to develop friendships and learn from nondisabled peers, and vice versa.

Macon Magic, the unified hockey team from Bibb County, was excited about the opportunity to represent their school system and their state in Alaska. To watch the Special Olympics Athletes and the Unified Partners practice and play together is too see courage, compassion, tolerance, respect and understanding in action.

The Special Olympics athletes from Central High School are Ben Bonds, Joris Brown, Kristen Bubb, Jarvis Dumas, Tamika Girtman, and James Thigpen. The Unified Partners from Central are tenth graders in the PIB program. They are Kricket Davis, Wendell Parker, and Rebecca Stewart.

The Special Olympics athlete from Southeast High School is Ricky Kent. The Unified Partners from Southeast High School are Donna Cox, Senior Class President; Suzanne Maddox, President of the Jr. Civitan; and Derek Thomas, a senior who has a scholarship offer to Mercer University. Kelvin Grayer, a student at Miller Middle School, is also a Unified

"A good name is more desirable than great riches, to be esteemed is better than silver or gold." Proverbs 22:1

Brandon, We are so proud of you for how hard you've worked and all you have accomplished. Most of all we are proud of the person you've become.

We love you. Dad, Mom, Andrew, and Benjamin

Christy Christmas, age 3

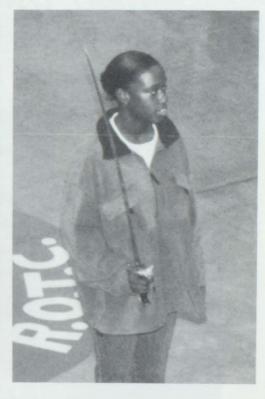

We Love You Christy!!!

From: Your Mom, Anthony, Eskie, Larry, Big Mama, Big Daddy, all of your Uncles, Auntie Shirley, and kids. Good luck on your future!

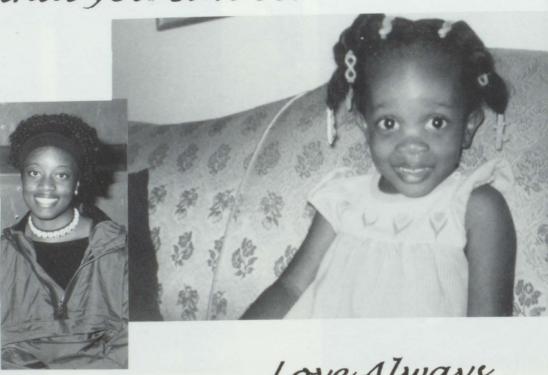

CONGRATULATIONS! Christy Lee Christmas

To the Great Class of 2001:

I was so delighted that you chose me as your Senior Class President. I will greatly miss you and don't forget me. I will be in touch in about five years. Remember to always be the BEST that you can be.

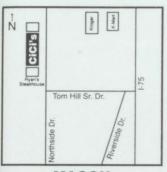

Love Always, Dawn Washington

"One Last Look Back On Some Charger Memories"

"As We Close Another Great Year In Charger History"

"Once A Charger, Always A Charger!"

The unknown figure stands alone

Looking into a world unknown.

As seasons change and the day grows long-

Everyone is gone.

The building stands empty.

The next year will be a new beginning;

The first time for some

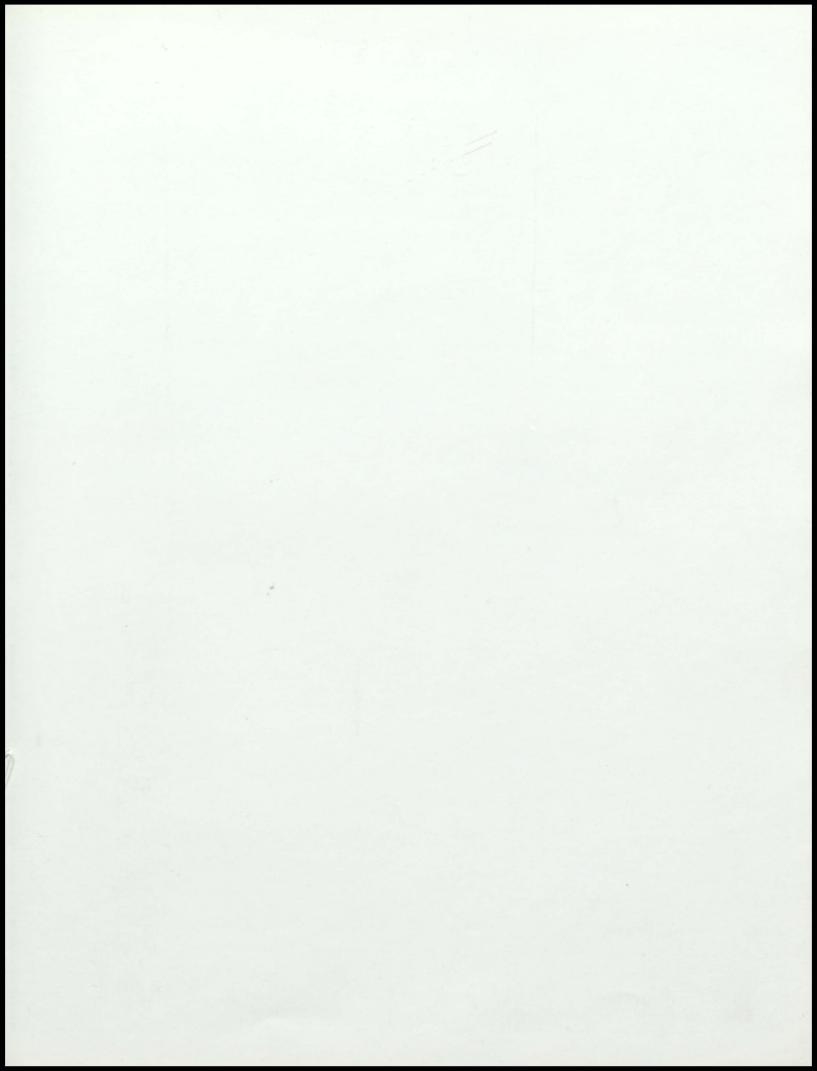

And the last for many.

The ONE thing we all know is

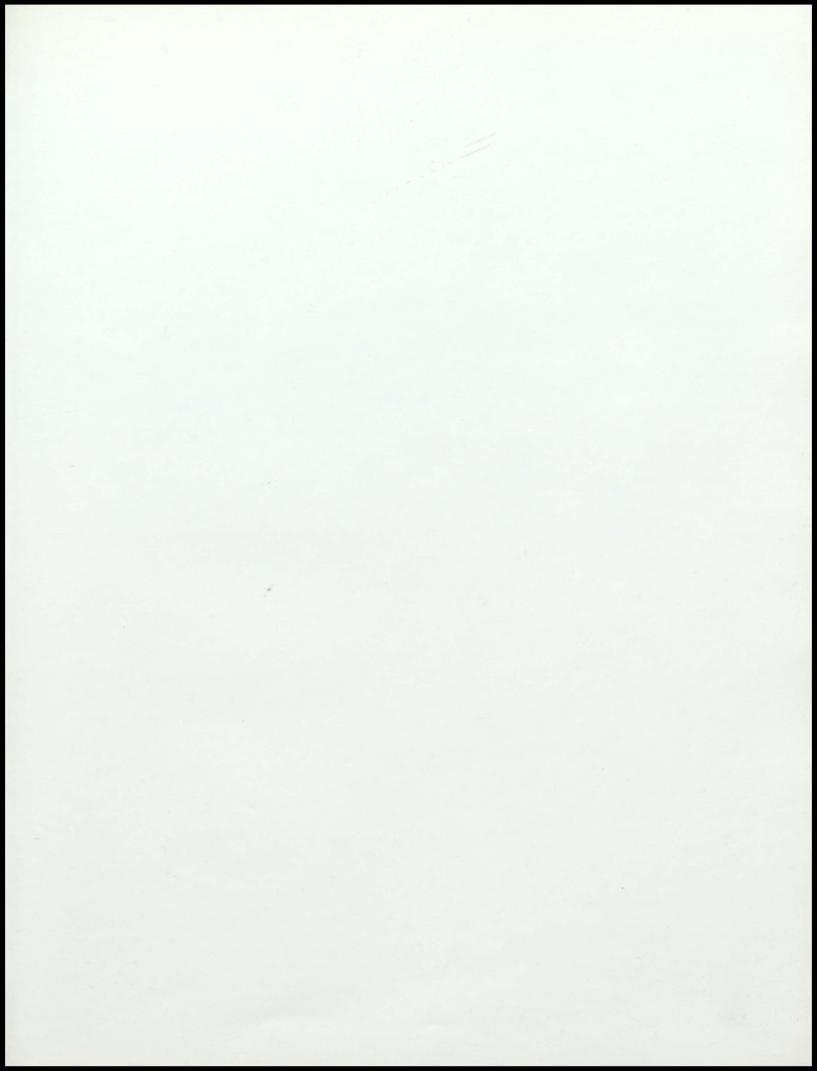

That we are Chargers...

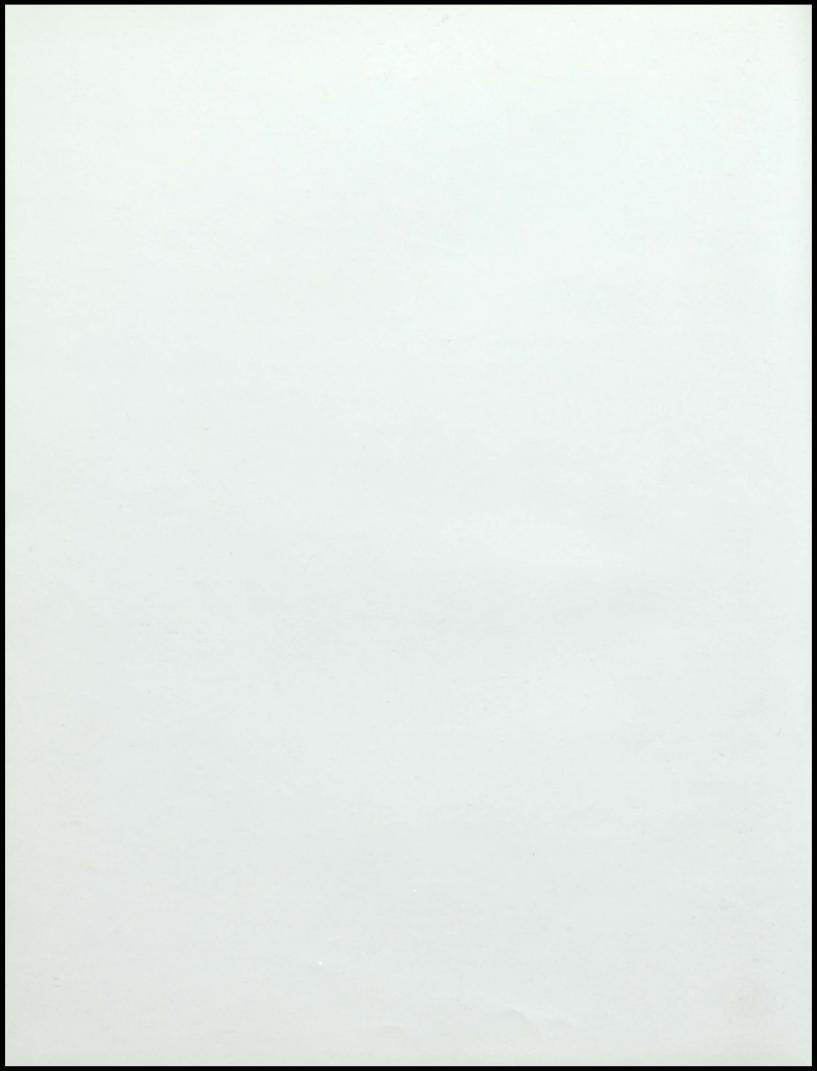

...through and through.
